History is made by people with ideas in the spirit of adventure. People who saw opportunity where others saw danger.

Most people don't have the capacity or inclination to be creative or the interest or even the curiosity to be a bit more interesting.

Primitive man believed his thoughts to be the voice of the gods.

He has given no evidence of humility or dependance on others. He takes every opportunity to humiliate and demean the vulnerable. He shows no curiosity or capacity to learn.

We are alright with silence.

Open study is an opportunity for anyone to observe and participate in the creative process.

Studies have found that creating art rewires our brain increasing the gray and white matter in the cerebellum. This increases overall cognitive functions. It makes us think better.

His position now in the world is a place for him to perform and gain attention.

Due to limited overall stimulation in minimal space I anticipated biological changes in my chemical structure and continued false alarms of a deeper physical nature.

You wake up in the morning and think about your hair take a shower have a shave and think just what you'll wear.

What the world needs today is canned laughter.
Egg Village - Home of the Egg Burger

In order to contend with the circumstances within I've adapted to my immediate situation of the moment thanks to continual stimulation from present environmental sources and I am in total control of my reflexes and possibilities.

Beyond the zones of the unknown is found the essence of polar thoughts and actions through continual stimulation and lack of self importance. Unknown factors of preceding events and a willingness to be more receptive to outer and inner influences.

Most people have an ideal, an image, a mental picture of the traits and characteristics of the person most adaptable to their social karma or circumstances even if they know it or not. People look at others and make a mental picture of what the person is or rather what type of person they are.

No society has ever been found who didn't have music.

Make a personal connection with the character.

When you are self sufficient and on your own there is a relief about it.

A lot of people bury their blues in those bars.

Finding a way to appeal to the masses.

When you wrestle a pig you both get dirty and the pig likes it.

We discover who we are by what we do.

Some have to live in the shadows

It's about values It's about beliefs.

I hold to a code of loyalty which very well may be outmoded but has always served me well.

Why anyone would like anyone else.
Either they recognize a part of themselves or they see something they can use also they see something that they are lacking and want to be near it.

Whatever was meant to happen always does.

I appreciate the fluidity of your tactics.

If you have some kind of understanding of color, design and light then directing is just three things. Your edited behavior over time. Then controlling moments that should be really fast and make them slow and taking moments that are slow and making them fast.

What do you do that makes your life interesting?

I'm sure you'll get to the meat of who they really are.
